

Ski for Light: An epic adventure awaits!

“Serving as a guide at SFL is an adventure, a great opportunity to ski every day, and a social event all rolled into one. Add in some of the most interesting people from around the world, and you have the perfect ski vacation.”

—Betsy Fischer, SFL guide (pictured in blue jacket at right, with blind skier Tai Tomasi)

Share your love of cross-country skiing with visually and mobility-impaired adults from across the United States and overseas. Join us for SFL 2020 at a fantastic new venue, the Casper Mountain Outdoor Center, and be part of an all-volunteer organization that truly changes lives.

SFL International Week: February 9-16, 2020 Casper, Wyoming

Learn more at www.SFL.org, and join our community on Facebook.com/SkiforLight.